Welcome to Our Service Today

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for being with us on this Lord's Day. We are truly honored by your presence. It is our hope and prayer that you will receive a blessing from the services and that God will use the preaching and teaching of His Word to stir your heart.

Mother's Day Today

Today is the day we set aside to honor our mothers. Down through the years much has been said and written about what makes a good mother. . . love, faith, patience, Godly wisdom, consistency, compassion, joy, sense of humor. The list is unending. The story is told of a mothers' meeting where there was a vigorous discussion on the theme—How early in a child's life ought one to begin to influence him toward God? After much spirited debate, a visiting grandmother was asked to make comment. In essence, she said, "I began with my first child twenty years before she was born by giving myself to Jesus Christ!" What a wise mother she was! Proverbs 31:28, "Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

WBOF Radio 109.5

Sunday Morning Sacred Psalms and Songs has been a blessing to many of our folks over the past months. This programming can be heard each Sunday from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. and again at 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. If you have any questions about ways to listen to our church services or preaching, please see Bro. Mike.

Dates to Remember

June 3 –Anna Long - Missionary to Thailand

June 12-13 - WBOF Spring Share-a-Thon

Something to Think About

Everything God made does what He designed it to do, and in doing so, it praises Him. Creation praises Him. The heavens declare His glory. But when it comes to man, he rebels. Instead of praise, there is pride. Instead of worship, there is wandering.

Points to Ponder

- Praise is not just something we give to God. It is something God uses to change us.
- Praise is not strange for the believer. It is not out of place. It is exactly where we ought to live.
- God is not seeking ability. He is seeking adoration.
- You cannot dwell on your burdens and bless God's name at the same time. When praise rises, heaviness falls.

FBC Publications

What a blessing the printing ministry has been in recent days as we continue spreading the Gospel through the printed page. We are so excited to furnish gospel booklets not only in Haiti, but also in Kenya! Many testimonies have been received of a number of people accepting Jesus as their personal Savior! How great is our God!

Principle for the Day

When we praise God, we are reminded of who He is. And when we remember who He is, our faith begins to strengthen. Prayer begins with praise and it ends with praise.

Praise Is Not Optional

Praise is not optional for the believer. It is expected. It is not just for Sunday. It is for every day. And yet, if we are honest, praise is often the most neglected part of our walk with God. We pray when we are in trouble. We ask when we are in need. We worry when we are overwhelmed. But too often, we forget to simply praise Him. And when we stop praising, we start losing the right way of seeing things.
